

Posture:

- o Posturing check health of endpoints like antivirus, latest service pack & OS updates.
- o Posture is used to check inside host for available antivirus, firewall, registry keys etc.
- o Posture of endpoint is a function of what software is present on endpoint device.
- o Posturing is a functionality to determine the security status of the endpoints device.
- o Posture service collects attributes from Endpoint to learn about the health & Security.
- o Posture service collects attributes from endpoint to learn Trust level of Endpoint device.
- o Posture assessment allows inspecting the security “health” of Personal Computer clients.
- o In order to check internal state, user needs to either install NAC agent or use web agent.
- o Web Agent is temporary software installed in guest system where NAC agent is permanent.
- o The Cisco ISE posture module is integrated with the Cisco AnyConnect package as well.
- o Anyconnect package can be easily install by using group policy in all the user computers.
- o Identity Service Engine posture module is integrated with the Cisco AnyConnect package.

